BLOOD ON THE CAKE

Wedding at Which the Trouble Began Early

Bride Returned Home Next Day, Husband Skipped, and Brides Brother Lost an Eye

Misfortune has enveloped in its dark cloak the houses of O'Malley and Reed. Guests and friends of both families state that it is because there was blood on the bridal cake the night of the marriage uniting the two families.

The marriage of Patrick O'Malley and Mrs. Mary Reed Gallagher took place in St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic church. Accompanied by their friends the newly wedded couple returned to the home of Mrs. O'Malley, 4729 Shields avenue, where a wedding feast was spread, to be followed by a dance.

Boy's Prank Causes a Panic.

A boy's prank in placing a piece of lead pipe on the stairs caused the brother of Mrs. O'Malley to fall and injure his head and an eye. He was carried upstairs, and the flow of crimson blood caused consternation among the guests, who saw a foreboding of evil—according to the ancient superstition of blood flowing at a wedding.

The bridesmaids stood about trying to assist the wounded man until their dainty gowns were stained crimson. In taking a napkin from the table some one left the imprint of a crimson hand on the white frosting of the bridal cake. In the hurry it was not noticed until after the doctor had gone. Then some one discovered the stain, and the bride swooned.

List of Misfortunes.

Here is the list of misfortunes that came to pass:

The next day the bride left her newly wedded husband, saying she was going home to County Mayo, Ireland, to visit her mother, with her brother, Michael.

The bridegroom spent the night at his home and the next day left. He has not been seen since.

Patrick Reed, the injured brother, was yesterday discharged from Mercy hospital, whither he was taken on his sister's marriage night. He is now blind in one eye from the operation following his fall on the stairs—inter Ocean.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system, and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

Trial of Famous Murder Case.
Covington, Ind., Dec. 9.—The famous murder case of Mrs. Elmina A. Drake, charged with poisoning her husband, Robert J. Drake, at Harveysburg in this county, two years ago, was called for trial in the fountain circuit court today. This is the second trial of the case. On the former trial the jury disagreed. The attorneys for the defense say that much new expert testimony will be offered and they appear confident of a verdict of acquittal.

Ignorance Is Bliss.

"The new mayor of a town in Central New York was elected by one vote," said Smithers, looking up from his paper.

"My goodness, if a man can be elected to office by one vote, why don't you run for something and vote for yourself," asked Mrs. Smithers, and Smithers went to the cellar and shook the furnace twice.—Milwaukee Journal.

The Best You Have Always Had

Verge

Of Insanity Despite Doctor's Care.

Nervous Cramps in Hands and Feet.

Dr. Miles' Nerveine Was My Salvation.

Sleeplessness is at once a symptom and a disease. Just as soon as the nerves become deranged the patient suffers from sleeplessness. Deprived of their natural rest the nerves soon lose all force and vitality and while sleeplessness is a symptom in such cases it frequently becomes chronic and remains the chief effect of disordered nerves. Dr. Miles' Nerveine quiets the nerves and strengthens them; soothes the tired brain and permits sleep; restores lost energy and vitality and brings sleep, health and strength.

"Previous to our coming to the territory three years ago, we lived in Virginia, and it was there that I got acquainted with the wonderful powers of Dr. Miles' Nerveine. I had been under the doctor's care and taking his medicine for over two years, but the nervous trouble that was gnawing my life away grew steadily worse. I had nervous cramps in my hands and legs, which would draw up and pain me so that I could not sleep at night. Often I never closed my eyes for days and nights together. The doctor finally told me he could do nothing more for me and that I was on the verge of insanity. He told me I might try your Nerveine as a last resort, and it proved to be my salvation. When I had used four bottles of the remedy together with the Nerve and Liver Pills I had regained my former good health."—Mrs. MARTHA J. SHEPHERD, Omer, Oklahoma.
